Our camp is designed to provide young athletes with the opportunity to become better players in the game today. The major emphasis is modeling and teaching individual skills as well as developing "field sense" and team concepts. Team concepts are constantly reinforced during daily drills, teaching stations, and competitive scrimmage situations. Groups will be divided according to age and skill level.

Session 1 and 2

- * Fundamental skill instruction
- * Concentration on stickwork and team building
- * Fun but competitive atmosphere
- * Game concepts introduced

Session 3

- * Advanced Individual and Team Instruction
- * Emphasis on advanced and specialty skills
- * Shooting, Dodging, Feeding, Crease A/D and much more
- * Introduction to the fundamentals of speed and agility
- * Goalkeeping
- * Small Game Play and Scrimmage
